World Traveller Visits Drayton

An interesting visitor to Drayton Valley last weekend was Mr. A.E. McCormick of London, England who has spent the last two years travelling around the world.

Mr. McCormick, a retired Civil Servant in the British War Office, is a former student of Brighton Grammar School and in his travels is looking up members of the school's Old Boys (alumni) Association. One of the Old Boys is John Eveleigh of Drayton Valley and Mr. McCormick spent the weekend visiting the Eveleigh family.

Only one other member of the association lives in Alberta an Edmonton man, who Mr. McCormick will also visit.

Lists of members and their last known addresses are provided to Mr. McCormick by the Old Boys Association as he prepares to enter another country. In his travels to date he has met about thirty former pupils of the school.

In the past two years he has visited fifty countries and plans to spend about one more year completing the trip for which he planned and saved for thirty years before retirement.

He has recorded highlights of his travels in more than 3,000 colored slides.

Mr. McCormick has been in Canada since early May, arriving in Vancouver from the Fiji Islands. Since his arrival in Canada he has visited northern British Columbia and the Western U.S. He expects to spend about three months in Canada before leaving for South America with visits in the U.S. and Central America on the way.

His European travels included Iron Curtain countries as well as all others with the exception of Albania. He doesn't expect to visit China, one of the few places he will miss, because of the difficulty in entering or moving around the country.

County of Leduc Seeks Annexation

The County of Leduc, at its last regular meeting, announced its intention of seeking annexation of approximately nine townships of land west and south-west of the existing county boundaries.

The move by Leduc County follows on the heels of an announcement by Stony Plain Municipality recently that it would seek annexation of the same general area and conversion to county status, effective January 1st, 1969.

The area proposed for annexation by Stony Plain Municipality includes I.D. 77 and the portions of I.D. 78 contained in the Provincial Electoral Constituency of Stony Plain.

Leduc County council has voted to petition the Minister of Municipal Affairs to annex parts of L.I.D. 77 and 78, to be effective January 1, 1968, one year ahead of the proposed take-over date by Stony Plain. The Brazeau Dam is included in the proposed annexation.

The annexation area of nine townships is approximately one quarter of the present 37 complete townships in the County of Leduc.

The areas are described officially as follows: (All are West of the Fifth Meridian).

Township 45, Range 9, West of North Saskatchewan River; Township 45, Range 10, To follow the North Boundary of the O'Cheese Indian Reserve; Township 46, Range 9, West of North Saskatchewan River; Township 46, Range 10, complete; Township 47, Range 7, north and west of North Saskatchewan River; Township 47, Range 8, North of North Saskatchewan River; Township 47, Range 9, North and West of North Saskatchewan River; Township 47, Range 10, complete; Township 48, Range 7, West of North Saskatchewan River; Township 48, Range 8, complete; Township 48, Range 9, complete; Township48, Range 10, South of Pembina River; Township 49, Range 7, West of North Saskatchewan River; Township 49, Range 8, Complete--East of Pembina River; Township 49, Range 9, East of Pembina River.

Mrs. Wood Attends W.I. Convention

Mrs. C.R. Wood of Stony Plain, former M.L.A. for this constituency, left last weekend to attend the national convention of the Federated Women's Institute of Canada as an Alberta delegate. The convention is being held at Guelph, Ontario.

Two hundred delegates will be travelling by bus from Guelph to Expo '67 in Montreal following the convention for a two-day visit. Mrs. Wood plans to spend an additional 12 days in Montreal.

Mrs. Wood is looking foward eagerly to the visit to Expo and told The Western Review editor last Thursday that she has her itinerary planned for the visit to enable her to see just as much of the fair as possible in the time available.

She is a seasoned World Fair visitor having taken in two of the big shows in New York and the Seattle event prior to Expo '67.

PICNICS CANCELLED

The weather on Farmers Day, June 9th was anything but ideal from the picnic standpoint although most farmers agreed that the moisture was welcome.

Picnics scheduled in the area were cancelled but the chicken supper and dance put on by the Drayton Valley local proved popular and was well attended.

ARDA Undertakes Land Development

Within the rural development area of central and northern Alberta, a program of grazing land development and expansion costing $430,000 is to be undertaken by ARDA.

Alberta Agriculture Minister H.E. Strom and federal Forestry and Rural Development Minister Maurice Sauve have announced that the cost will be shared equally by the provincial and federal governments.

There are five pastures in the program: Minburn, Wanham, St. Paul, Barrhead-Lac Ste. Anne and Westlock. These pastures are being developed from land which is unsuitable for cereal production due to soil type, topography and inaccessibility to market.

Improvement of these pastures will increase the original carrying capacity three or four times that of open wood acres, and as much as eight to ten times that of heavy bush land. Farm income will improve by allowing farm people within a 40-mile radius of the pastures to make more efficient use of their land by concentration on crop production and the production of hay for winter feed.

The Lands & Forest Conservation and Utilization Committee, under the Department of Agriculture, and the Department of Lands & Forests will carry out the actual development and administration of the project.

4-H Members See Production Of Newspaper

Eight members of the Carnwood 4-H Cloth Cutters Club with their Leader, Mrs. Rose Saunders and assistant leader, Mrs. R. Ellis visited the Western Review plant in Drayton Valley last Saturday to see first hand the production of a weekly newspaper and commercial printing.

They observed newspaper pages in various stages of production from paste-up flats to photographic negatives and how headliner and type setting equipment is used in preparing ads and news copy.

Camera work was described to them and various pieces of offset and letterpress printing equipment demonstrated by members of the staff.

The girls appeared to enjoy the visit and the management of The Western Review happy they were able to come and hopeful that they were able to learn something of our operation in the short time available.

MOON LAKE

Donna Cherrington, Correspondent

Sorry for missing a few editions but the school year is drawing to an end which means exams to study for which also reminds one, 'Good Luck to all you kids who have finals to write, especially to grade 9 and 12 this year.'

We're glad to see Shirley Romanchuk has returned home from the hospital after an appendix attack.

Diane Bush was nominated to represent Moon Lake in the Evansburg Centennial Pageant on July 1st. She will be judged on dress, manner and number of tickets sold. So come on Moon Lake help support Diane in the contest. Everyone's help is needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jensen motored to Calgary to attend a provincial meeting of the Elks. They travelled with Mr. and Mrs. Mitchel of Evansburg.

Antique and Hobby Show To be Held During Rodeo

A show of antiques and hobby collections will be held on July 22nd in conjunction with the amateur rodeo scheduled for that date in Drayton Valley.

The antique show will be held in the Sekura Auctions Building, while rodeo activities will take place on the grounds now being prepared at the site.

The antiques and hobby show will be sponsored by the local Rotary Club and managed by Bob Mayhew and Dr. T. Eustace.

It is hoped that many people will volunteer the display of their hobby collections that might include stamps, coins, rocks, firearms (antique and modern), cartridges, arrowheads, fossils, birds eggs--or anything else that other people would like to see.

The committee in charge of the event stressed the point that size of the collection was not important--large or small they would like to hear from any collector who could add something to the show.

Several exhibitors have already been lined up for entry and include collections of pistols, Winchester rifles, antique firearms, rocks and cartridges.

It is hoped to have trophies for competition in some categories but this is tentative and more details will be available later as plans advance.

At the moment the problem is obtaining more entries--large or small -- and anyone with a collection that they would like to show is asked to contact either Mr. Mayhew or Dr. Eustace.

Editorial Comment

Which Way To Go?

Another neighboring municipality has entered the I.D. 77 and 78 sweepstake. The County of Leduc has followed the lead of Stony Plain Municipal District and announced its intention of making a bid for annexation of portions of the two Improvement Districts.

The Stony Plain announcement came some time ago and didn't appear to create too much excitement and it's too soon for any reaction to the Leduc announcement as most area residents are probably just becoming aware of it.

How do residents of L.I.D.'s 77 and 78 feel about the proposed annexations? Do they want to be annexed and if so by whom? This decision, we believe, should rest with the people involved--the farmers and ranchers in the L.I.D.'s.

Perhaps they would prefer creation of a new municipal district--this alternative should logically also be theirs to make.

Some indication should come from the people of the area regarding the direction they wish to go. However, with Leduc County suggesting a January 1st, 1968 take over date, a decision must be made quickly if farmers in the area prefer a course other than those offered by Leduc and Stony Plain.

Help Prevent Fires

Every year thousands of dollars worth of valuable timber is destroyed by forest fires. Sometimes these fires are a result of natural causes but more often they result from the carelessness of persons not impressed by the danger of dry summer weather in heavily forested areas.

Cigarettes, matches, and campfires are, of course, the prime activators of forest fires. A cigarette or match landing in a clump of leaves or dry pine needles will soon burst into flame which spreads at an alarming rate in a forest dried by the summer's sun. Likewise, campfires which are not laid on a wide patch of cleared land or which are not properly extinguished after use, will quickly cause the dreaded forest fire.

Cigarette butts should be squashed in the earth, not in leafy ground. Better still, they should be extinguished in some water. The same precautions should be taken with matches which, for extra protection, may be broken in two after they are put out. In addition, campfires should be drowned with buckets of water, then covered with earth.

Also, campers and picnickers should take care that they do not leave broken bottles in recreation areas. Sunlight becomes concentrated by broken glass and can kindle twigs or leaves.

Seek Nominations for Master Farm Award

If you know a family who is worthy of Alberta's highest agricultural award, send their names to your district agriculturist or district home economist before July 14th.

This year's winners of Alberta's annual Master Farm Family awards will receive an all-expense-paid trip for husband and wife to Expo 67. An alternative award of $1,000 will be made to families who are unable to take advantage of the trip.

To be eligible for nomination, the family must be Canadian Citizens, the head of the family must be the owner-operator or lease-operator of the farm, and he must have spent at least 20 consecutive years running it. Military service will be accepted in lieu of time on the farm.

Nominations must be made on the forms provided and signed by at least three neighbours of the nominee, who must accept the nomination.

The Master Farm Family award is given only to families whose standing in farming practices, citizenship and community leadership is such that other farmers can point to them with pride. Only five awards can be given each year, one for each of the regions corresponding with the five soil zones of the Province. No award is made in a region where a suitable candidate is not nominated. The size and type of farming is not important from the point of view of eligibility, it is the family itself that counts.

Purebred sires are the source from which commercial producers of livestock upgrade their product. As genetic improvements are imparted to each succeeding generation of a commercial herd, the gap in genetic quality between purebreds and the herd narrows.

Incentive for the Purebred Breeder

BRANDON--The quality of commercial livestock production is controlled to a large extent by the purebred breeder; he supplies new herd sires for each generation, says Dr. G. W. Rahnefeld, geneticist at C. D. A. 's Research Station at Brandon, Manitoba. This service permits commercial producers to make improvements by mating their best females to superior purebred males.

Maximum genetic improvement requires the selection of both superior males and females, but the commercial producer's system primarily limits the rate of improvement to the genetic improvement in the selected sires. For that reason it becomes increasingly important for the purebred breeder to maintain genetic superiority in his herd.

One basic principle of genetics is that each individual receives half of his genes from each parent and, in turn, transmits a sample half of his genes to each of his offspring. This means that the genetic contribution of the foundation animals is rapidly diluted each generation.

The statement "that about 90 per cent of the possible genetic improvement in a commercial herd depends on the genetic superiority in the purebred herds that produce the herd sires," may sound like an over-emphasis of the sire's contribution. This is not so, explains Dr. Rahnefeld, because the sires contribute 50 per cent of the genes to the next generation, the males used in the last two generations contribute 75 per cent of the genes; the last three generations of sires contribute 87.5 per cent, the last four contribute 93.8 per cent; and so on.

If the owner of a commercial herd buys a sire considerable better than his own females, the genetic merit of their offspring should be halfway between that of the sire and the average of the dams. If replacement females are kept from these matings and mated to a sire whose genetic merit is equal to that of the previous sire, the amount of improvement will be half as large as it was in the previous generation.

Thus, if the level of merit of the sires used remains the same each generation, the genetic improvement will be halved in each succeeding generation. Therefore, if a commercial producer is not selecting genetically superior sires each generation, or if the purebred breeders are not providing him with superior sires through continual improvement in their herds, the commercial producer can make no progress after about four generations.

This is a real challenge to the seed stock producers because the amount of progress possible in the commercial herd in succeeding generations is dependent upon the genetic improvement in the males used from one generation to the next. The commercial producer has nothing to gain from using a purebred sire if the genetic merit is equal to that of purebred herds from which replacements have to come.

An uncrowded scenic highway through the foothills of Alberta is provided by the gravelled Forestry Trunk Road, which runs more than 600 miles from the Crowsnest Pass to Grande Prairie.

D. V. Highlights

BY MRS EDITH DEBY

It was with regret that we heard last week that Mrs. Beckley is very seriously ill in an Edmonton hospital. When the hotel was first built, Mrs. Beckley worked on the desk and will be remembered by many for her cheery good humour.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bowda and family arrived from Venezuela last week for a two month holiday. Mrs. Gowda's mother, Mrs. John Medwed, and her grandparents, Mrs. and Mrs. Walter Durham, live here as well as a plentiful supply of aunts, uncles and cousins so the two months will pass altogether too quickly. At present the Gowdas are visiting with Mr. Gowda's mother in Saskatoon. The whole family has a marvelous tan and the Gowda children chatter in Spanish as fluently as they speak English.

It is a disappointment that Miss Maureen and Mr. Harry Mcnaughton, newly arrived from Glasgow, will be leaving us at the end of the week to make their home in Calgary.

Congratulations to Duncan Larbalestier who has just been elected governor of Lions International district 37B. The Larbalestiers who were in Drayton Valley for some years, now live in Edmonton.

Mr. Karach and Mr. Wespinski are shown in the above photo operating the swamp buggy they built for hunting and fishing use.

District Men Build Fishing-Hunting Vehicles

Two district men, Eddie Wespinski of Ramona and Mike Karach of Lodgepole, joined forces to improve their chances of reaching the good hunting and fishing by the construction of a swamp buggy for each.

The first vehicle was completed earlier in the spring after about five weeks work and the second is now under construction. The vehicles are being built on the Wespinski farm north of Drayton Valley using Eddie's shop and equipment and his self-taught mechanical ability.

Mr. Karach was high in his praise of Mr. Wespinski's work which has already gained him recognition in the Ramona area for his ability to repair broken mechanical parts rather than replace them.

The buggy is the men's own design, powered by a four-cylinder Austin engine with two 4-speed transmissions. The vehicle can travel at speeds of less than one m.p.h. to 25 m.p.h.

The tracked swamp buggy is particularly well adapted for muskeg terrain and also performs well in snow. Both men hope to put them to good use in outdoors pursuits.

EVANSBURG CENTENNIAL UNDERTAKING

Rink Project Making Good Progress

Evansburg and District has its Centennial covered rink project well underway and hope to have the Grand Opening on July 1st when the Centennial Caravan makes a stop here for one day. It was a huge undertaking and was made possible by the many generous people and organizations within the surrounding area.

The roof is on and wall sections are being sold to persons and organizations who wish to help financially. Honor is being bestowed on these people by the placing of a bronze plaque engraved with their names on the section for which they provided the money.

Those organizations which have donated money so far are as follows: Evansburg Community League, $1000; Royal Canadian Legion, $500; United Church Women, $100; Parkcourt Gay Gatherers, $100; Kinsmen Club, $1000; Kinette Club, $200; Catholic Women's League, $50; Farmer's Community Club (Parkcourt), $100.

Companies and Organizations who have purchased wall sections are as follows: Young's Transport; George and Allan; Pembina Peerless Coal; Corkery Drugs Ltd.; Evansburg Super Foods; Midget Hockey Club; Evansburg Students' Union (half-section).

The wall sections may be purchased for $175 for a 16 x 16 ft. section or $88 for a half section. There are a few sections left to be sold but those interested persons should contact Mr. Morris Manz or Mr. A.L. Grassi immediately if they do not want to be disappointed.

This huge covered arena should provide accommodation for all types of community recreation such as skating, horse shows, 4-H exhibits and what have you. Evansburg is very proud of its project and invite everyone to share in the fun.

A few demonstrations were put on by the girls and a few words from the leader, Mrs. Rose Saunders. The comments from the judges, Miss Kureluk and Miss Cameron on the girls projects for the year followed. Mrs. Rose Saunders, club leader, expressed her thanks to the girls for their cooperation during the year and to assistant leaders, Mrs. Rose Young and Mrs. Ray Ellis for their help. POOL PROGRAM

The swimming program at the Drayton Valley Swimming Pool is in its first full week of operation and all activities are being carried out as scheduled. The school program under the direction of Doug Hall and Tom Hutton started on Tuesday, June 6th and is progressing very favorably. This program will continue throughout the month of June.

Plans are to have a Red Cross senior leader course starting June 19th providing there is sufficient registration for such a course. Registrations are now open and the requirements in order to qualify for this course are a Red Cross Senior Swimmer's award and at least hold a Bronze Medalion with the Royal Life Saving Society. The minimum age for this course is sixteen years old. Applications are being accepted at the swimming pool by Chief Lifeguard, Sharon Phelan.

A bronze medalion class will be presented from July 3 to July 14 from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. each day Monday through Friday. No specific qualifications are necessary for this class other than the candidate must be at least fourteen years of age. Registrations are now open at the pool office for this class. The acquiring of a Bronze Medalion qualifies a person for lifeguard duties, however, the minimum age for any lifeguard is sixteen years of age. By the same token, anyone acquiring a bronze medalion at fourteen years of age and increasing their life saving qualifications at every available opportunity could be a very qualified and valuable person to have on a pool staff at the age of sixteen providing such a person had the maturity and sense of responsibility required for such work.

The Neptune Competitive Swim Club got under way last Monday evening. Presently the club is under the direction of Vic and Jackie Timmins. Fred De Geest is presently out of town, but will be reutrning to the club in the near future. Prospects look bright for an excellent competitive swim year. There are still openings for new members in the club. Application forms are available at the swimming pool during the regular hours of operation.

A Tiny Tot Learn to Swim Class will be held starting June 19th through June 20th from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. This course consists of ten lessons. All children taking part must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Further information and application forms for these classes are presently available at the pool office.

TENNIS CLINIC

A regional tennis instructor clinic will be held at the Drayton Valley Tennis Courts on Thursday, June 22 at 6:30 p.m. The clinic is sponsored by the Department of Youth of the Province of Alberta in conjunction with the Alberta Lawn Tennis Association. The registration fee is $1 per person and registration forms are available from Ian Bryden or from the Recreation Office. A minimum of ten candidates is required in order for the clinic to go on.

The Drayton Valley Tennis Association held their organizational meeting on Wednesday, May 31 in the Recreation Office. The Association executive elected for the coming year are President, Bruce Boles, Vice-President, Gordon Hay, Secretary-Treasurer, Ian Bryden and Membership Chairman, K. Katyal.

The membership fees set at the meeting were as follows: Family $15 per season, Adult, $10 per season and Student, $5 per season. For non-member day players, fees were set at $1 per day for adults and 50¢ per day for students. In any case referring to these aforementioned fees, a student is anyone attending high school, junior high or elementary school. Membership dues may be paid to any member of the Association executive or sent to Ian Bryden, P.O. Box 1022, Drayton Valley.

Mr. Katyal will be available for general instruction in the game of tennis at the local court on Tuesday and Wednesday evening of each week. For further information in this respect call Mr. Katyal at 542-3054.

RECREATION WORKSHOP HERE

The Central Area Recreation Board and Administrators Workshop will be held here in Drayton Valley next Friday, June 16th from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The workshop will be carried out in the Council Chambers of the Town Hall under the direction of Mrs. Rae Gowers, Central Area Consultant for the Department of Youth of the Provincial Government.

This is an open meeting for anyone interested in any phase of the recreation field. Recreation Board members, Recreation Directors, Activity Leaders, School delegates and representatives from rural Government agencies should make a special effort to attend.

Roughly the boundaries of the the Central Area for the purposes of such workshops are west to Jasper, East to the Saskatchewan border, north to Highway 16 and south to Red Deer.

These meetings are held on a a quarterly basis. In November 1966 the workshop was held in Leduc and last March we met in Wetaskiwin.

Proposed topics for consideration at this meeting are communications at all levels of recreation and between recreation and other related fields of community life, the needs of special groups such as senior citizens, community leadership courses, and their practicality and their value and a review of what is being done in the way of dance instruction throughout this part of the province. Also suggestions of other items for discussion at the workshop are very welcome. Your suggestions and ideas should be made known to the Recreation Office on or before June 15th in order that they can be included in the agenda.

We look forward to a resourceful and rewarding workshop. One that is well attended, one that provokes thought and promotes lively discussion, one that will be informative and enlightening to all concerned. Will see you at the Central Area Recreation Workshop on Friday.

Centennial Service Held

The service, conducted by members of the Drayton Valley Ministerial Association, was well received and partaken by all.

Rev. E. Martin; Rev. G. Ingram; Rev. E. Lynch; and Rev. D. Snell led the people in prayers and hymns. Dr. H. Maclure accompanied at the organ.

Mayor H. Pickup gave the sermon. He pointed out how man is drifting away from God and how insignificant we are compared to the wonders of God's work.

It is hoped more services of this nature will be held to bring all denominations together under one roof.

WOMEN IN THE SPACE AGE

She challenged every woman to accept her responsibility and her place as a woman. We need to be informed about what is going on around us and to keep up with the latest advances that will make us better homemakers.

You've all heard and read about the Carter Commission but it may be "Dutch" to you. Find out how this proposed legislation affects you and your children and your husband. For example, if the Estate Tax Rebate Act comes into effect persons "domiciled" in Alberta will be refunded 75% of the estate tax normally paid. The catch is in the word "domicile". This refers to a person's legal home.

It may be difficult to prove domicile in Alberta, even if you've made your home here.

This applies to the new divorce laws, as well. It's the responsibility of every woman to see that no child is allowed to suffer because of an inadequate law. You may not agree with divorce but the fact is, it affects many families. The way the law is now (and the way it's going to be for the next 20 years if something isn't done about it) a woman whose husband's legal domicile is Nova Scotia will have to file suit there. Suppose she's living in Alberta and he has deserted her leaving her with five little children. It would work a real hardship and be almost impossible for that woman to take steps to get support for her children. The alternative? Welfare. And you as taxpayers will pay for it.

Find out about the laws that affect you and other Alberta families and then, let's get some action on the ones we don't like

Breton Hosts Tournament

June 3rd saw teams from Alder Flats, Drayton Valley, Thorsby, Pigeon Lake, Winfield Warburg, and Breton taking part in the Fastball Tournament for the coveted Nielson's Boys Trophy and Solo Store Girls' Trophy.

Twelve exciting fastball games were witnessed. Coming out on top for the girls were Pigeon Lake for the sixth consecutive time. They easily defeated Drayton Valley in three innings 25-4.

The Cross Country Race was won by Joe Durocher of Pigeon Lake, Peter Maine of Breton second, Lawrence Contios of Warburg third, the winner to receive the Teacher Trophy. Others running were Michael Rose, Ian Skoye, Ron Stevenson, Doug Anderson and Harvey Peterson.

The Breton Students' Union will be looking forward to hosting the tournament again next year and extends congratulations to the winners and thanks to the participating teams for their behaviour and sportsmanship. Thanks are also extended to the officials for their continual support.

BERRYMOOR

Mrs. Bea Cropley,
Correspondent

We wish to congratulate Claudette Barrett on her lovely diamond. The lucky fellow is Jim Levers of Breton. They plan to be married sometime this summer.

The Harry Campbell household is bustling with excitement and activity preparing for July 7th when their daughter, Gloria will be married to Allan Bryant of Winfield. Allan still has his foot in a cast but hopes to soon be able to go back to work.

The 3 B's gathered at the cemetery on Saturday for the spring clean-up day. Flowers were planted on some of the newer graves. This community should be complimented on the neatness of its cemetery.

Beth Holmgren has spent quite a bit of her time in the Drayton Valley Hospital during the last few weeks. We hope she will soon be able to be at home with her family.

Get well wishes go out to Mrs. Olga Lindell who has been a patient in the Breton Hospital for some time. Mrs. Lindell who has been on crutches for a long time fell and fractured her injured leg.

On Friday night Allan and Valera Martin gave the Lifeliners a surprise wiener roast following their meeting. The young folks had all the hot dogs, cool-ade and cookies they could hold. Everyone had a wonderful time.

On Sunday night Allan took a car load to attend the Lifeliners rally in Sundre. Berrymoor had won the Banner for May and Poplar Valley won it for June.

A liquid embroidery tea was held at the home of Florence Johnston on Wednesday afternoon. The ladies were given blocks stamped with roses and tulips and were given instructions in shading. Following the instruction period a lovely lunch was served by the hostess.

The P.H.W.A. meeting was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Martin with five members present. Nearly all the blocks are in for the quilt the ladies are making. Next meeting will be held at Valera Wideman's on the 4th of July.

Cross-Breds Replace Herefords?

LETHBRIDGE--The time may soon be at hand when Hereford cattle familiar to Alberta rangelands may be replaced by a variety of cross-bred animals, delegates to the 57th annual summer convention of the Alberta Veterinary Medical Association were told here recently.

Dr. Lavon Sumption of the Lethbridge Research Station, speaking about the advantages of cross-bred beef animals said: "It's not what they look like--but what the bank account is like that matters."

The Lethbridge animal geneticist said there are indications cross-bred cattle conceive earlier, have bigger calves and will weigh more at market time than do purebreds.

Veterinarians were also told that one of the best ways to avoid kidney and bladder stones in beef animals on the range is to get them to eat more salt and thus drink more water. Dr. Peter Bailey, expert in urinary calculi at the Lethbridge Research Station said urinary calculi (stones in the urinary system) cause much difficulty and death in cattle when they block the urinary tubes. The stones are caused by minerals in the native range grass. In southern Alberta silica--which may run as high as eight per cent in the native grass is especially bad.

Dr. Doug Mitchell, Federal Research Institute, Hull, Quebec, predicted a big boom can be expected in the west in development of stables for collection of pregnant mare urine. Stockmen in Canada are already making $7.5 million a year in this venture with 8,000 mares being used for this purpose on the Prairies. He though some stockmen may switch from dairy farming to PMU stables "because there's more money and less problems.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

Plan Summer Horse Show

Plans are going ahead for the 6th annual Kinsmen Horse Show to be held in Evansburg on Saturday, August 19th.

The show features a free pancake breakfast from 8 to 10:30 a.m. followed by a parade. A contest will also be held to name the Horse Show Queen.

Some of Canada's finest horses will be featured in events that include a Cutting Horse Contest, Open Champ Jumper Sweepstake, Junior Jumper Sweepstake and a Gymkhana Jackpot Competition.

A Queen's Ball and Steak Fry will be a feature of Friday, August 11th, the weekend prior to the Horse Show. The ball will honor Queen candidates.

BY NANCY GAYLORD

DRESS PLUS JACKET equals Fashion Know-how. Fashion a sleeveless streak of sunny Marigold wool eased into a casual flare. Top with a matching (or wildly contrasting) jacket, cropped short or pulled very long. Most un-suity but very suitable for a young elegant about town. To wear from business through evening.

SHORT-SHEARED hair à la Mia Farrow ... the look to watch and wear. Necessary ingredients: good bones, hair that hugs the head nicely. If its's you -- VERY smart and VERY "in"!

WEDDING BELLS ring out unanimous approval for "The Cage" -- a free-falling tent of feminine floating fabric that plays peek-a-boo with its own sheath-dress underneath. The clever bride-to-be will find it a cinch to sew herself in elegant transparents like tulle, organza, point d'esprit, lace. Join pieces with French seams by stitching 1'/8 inch in with wrong sides facing; turn right sides facing and stitch again.

Dream of looking like a Dresden doll? Sprinkle pristine organdy with lacy daisies and circle the neckline and hem with daisy chains. Traditional lace becomes enchantingly modern with a wide lingerie hem and dainty bindings of organza. Combine white on white embroidery with rows and rows of tiny organdy tucks for an expensive-looking border on hem, train and sleeves. It's as easy as pie with the new Centennial Golden "Touch & Sew" machine by Singer!

SQUARE OFF with Spring's fabulous foot fashions. Toes are broad and roundly square; heels are square and low. Barely-there sandals offer chic air-conditioning for city streets as well as the beach. Toes, as often as not, are enormously bowed in leather, ribbon or even metal. A low-heeled look that is really high-key with shorter skirts for day and evening.

MATCH STRIPES or plaids the easy way. Fold under the seam allowance of one edge and lap over the seam allowance of the second garment piece. Match seamlines and notches; pin. Slip-baste the fold down from the right side, matching stripes as you sew. Remove pins and machine stitch as usual. To slip-baste; slip needle along in the upper fold; then down under the lower layer.

Tour Termed Satisfying Event

By now all thirty-four Albertans who participated in the Beefeeders Tour of Southern Ontario and Western Quebec will have returned after a satisfying ten days. As befitted westerners going east this year, they were greeted by skiffs of snow on the first day which helped to remind them that weather knows no boundaries. From that day onward the weather improved until temperatures of 78° occurred in Montreal.

The fact that Ontario feeders will require very increasing numbers of feeder cattle and that the Ontario Government is encouraging cow-calf operations in Northern Ontario was noted by all those present. Farm labour is a problem in Ontario as in Western Canada, and their solution is to automate their feedlots using auger bunk feeders combined with silo unloaders to handle from 300 to 600 head with one man.

The dependence of the Ontario feeder on corn production was shown most clearly. It was noted that by-products such as stillage, cannery waste, off-grade walnuts, screenings, and corn stover combined with corn or grass silage, high moisture corn, haylage, grain silage were used as best suited the land and management capabilities. Supplements including urea, molasses, oyster shell were an important part of the program but there was a noticeable lack of "full grain" feeding.

The Eastern cattle feeder faced with more precipitation has been compelled to provide shelters and, in one instance, complete confinement. Ventilation had been a problem, but insulation, ventilating fans and new building designs have solved this. Straw was in short supply and cost almost as much as poor quality hay, so corn cobs, sawdust, or wood chips were being used as bedding. It was noted that manure packs were allowed to build up in the barns and spread on the land at rates of 4 to 5 tons per acres per year. This helped maintain organic moisture and soil fertility.

TATTOO OBSTACLE RACE--One of two field gun crews in action during the naval obstacle race, a highlight of the Canadian Armed Forces tattoo. The guns were built to 18th century specifications at HMC Dockyard, Halifax, and the Canadian Armament Research and Development Establishment, Valcartier, Quebec, especially for the tattoo. The carriage and timbers were fashioned from Nova Scotia oak.

Youth Drowns At Wabamun

Allan Buckner's body was recovered from the lake in the Kapasiwin Park area by a dragging party organized by RCMP from Stony Plain.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Buckner, Allan was one of a group from Wildwood picnicking at the east end of Lake Wabamun when the accident occurred, shortly before noon.

Besides the parents, Allan is survived by a brother, Thomas, 19, and a sister, Gloria, 15.

Two Residents Compose Songs for Centennial

Belated congratulations and thanks are extended to two Drayton Valley ladies who composed music for their centennial projects.

Mrs. Lil Ross, who is the music teacher at Drayton Valley Junior High wrote "David Thompson", the story of mapmaker, David Thompson. "Our Canada" was written by Mrs. Grace Janzen who is employed with Mobil Oil.

The songs were sung at the official opening of the Civic Centre in conjunction with the Canoe Pageant. The Choralaires sang, "Our Canada" and the Oil Wives played and sang, "David Thompson."

We hope these songs will be presented many times before our Centennial year comes to a close.
